

INDEX TO VOL. XCIX. (A)

- Abernethy (C. L.) See Garner and Abernethy.
Abney (Sir W. de W.) Obituary notice of, i.
Adam (N. K.) The Properties and Molecular Structure of Thin Films of Palmitic Acid on Water. Part I, 336.
Alloys of aluminium, copper, and zinc (Haughton and Bingham), 47.
Alloys of iron with nickel, &c., influence of low temperatures on magnetic properties of (Onnes, etc.), 174.
Alpha-ray tracks, branched (Shimizu), 432.
Aluminium alloys (Haughton and Bingham), 47.
Armstrong (E. F.) and Hilditch (T. P.) A Study of Catalytic Actions at Solid Surfaces VI.—Surface Area and Specific Nature of a Catalyst: two Independent Factors controlling the Resultant Activity, 490.
Aston (F. W.) On Isotopes (Discussion), 95.
Atomic lattices and electro-crystalline properties (Larmor), 1.
Balls (W. L.) A Simple Apparatus for Approximate Harmonic Analysis and for Periodicity Measurements, 283.
Beta-rays excited by γ -rays, magnetic spectrum of (Ellis), 261.
Bingham (K. E.) See Haughton and Bingham.
Bone (W. A.) Researches upon Brown Coals and Lignites. Part I.—Heat Treatment at Temperatures below 400° C. as a Possible Method for Enhancing their Fuel Values, 236.
Bowen (E. J.) See Hinshelwood and Bowen.
Brown coals and lignites, researches on, I (Bone), 236.
Brunt (D.) The Dynamics of Revolving Fluid on a Rotating Earth, 397.
Carbonic acid, total heat of liquid (Jenkin), 352.
Catalytic actions at solid surfaces. VI (Armstrong and Hilditch), 490.
Catalytic activity of copper (Palmer), 412.
Catalytic dehydrogenation of alcohols (Rideal), 153.
Catalytic reduction of ethylene to ethane (Palmer), 402.
Chakravarty (B. N.) On the Diffraction of Light incident at nearly the Critical Angle on the Boundary between two Media, 503.
Clifton (R. B.) Obituary notice of, vi.
Cyanogen, viscosity and molecular dimensions of (Rankine), 331.
Datta (S.) The Vacuum Arc Spectra of Sodium and Potassium, 69; — On the Spectra of the Alkaline Earth Fluorides and their Relation to each other, 436.
Decomposition of crystalline solids, influence of physical conditions on (Hinshelwood and Bowen), 203.
Dehydrogenation, catalytic, of alcohols (Rideal), 153.
Diaphragms capable of continuous tuning (King), 163.
Discussion on isotopes, 87.
Dobbie (Sir J. J.) and Fox (J. J.) The Absorption of Light by Elements in a State of Vapour: the Halogens, 456.
Dynamics of revolving fluid on rotating earth (Brunt), 397.

- Earth's crust, age of (Russell), 84.
- Eddington (A. S.) A Generalisation of Weyl's Theory of the Electromagnetic and Gravitational Fields, 104.
- Einstein's theory of gravitation (Jeffery), 123.
- Electro-crystalline properties conditioned by atomic lattices (Larmor), 1.
- Electromagnetic and gravitational fields, generalisation of Weyl's theory (Eddington), 104.
- Electron, field of, on Einstein's theory of gravitation (Jeffery), 123.
- Ellis (C. D.) The Magnetic Spectrum of the β -Rays excited by γ -Rays, 261.
- Evaporation from large expanses of water (Giblett), 472.
- Films of palmitic acid on water (Adam), 336.
- Fletcher (Sir L.) Obituary notice of, ix.
- Fluid, dynamics of revolving, on rotating earth (Brunt), 397.
- Fluorescence, interval between absorption and emission of light in (Wood), 362.
- Fourier's integral theorem, extension of, and physical applications (Fowler), 462.
- Fowler (R. H.) A Simple Extension of Fourier's Integral Theorem and some Physical Applications, in particular to the Theory of Quanta, 462.
- Fox (J. J.) See Dobbie and Fox.
- Functions of positive type and linear transformations (Mercer), 19.
- Galvanometer records, method of analysing (Hartree and Hill), 172.
- Garner (W. E.) and Abernethy (C. L.) Heats of Combustion and Formation of Nitro-Compounds. Part I.—Benzene, Toluene, Phenol and Methylaniline Series, 213.
- Giblett (M. A.) Some Problems connected with Evaporation from Large Expanses of Water, 472.
- Griffiths (E. A.) A Liquid Oxygen Vaporiser, 281.
- Hadfield (Sir R. A.) See Onnes (and others).
- Harmonic analysis, apparatus for approximate, and for periodicity measurements (Balls), 283.
- Hartree (W.) and Hill (A. V.) A Method of Analysing Galvanometer Records, 172.
- Hatschek (E.) Anomalous Liesegang Stratifications produced by the Action of Light, 496.
- Haughton (J. L.) and Bingham (K. E.) The Constitution of the Alloys of Aluminium, Copper, and Zinc containing High Percentages of Zinc, 47.
- Hilditch (T. P.) See Armstrong and Hilditch.
- Hill (A. V.) See Hartree and Hill.
- Hinshelwood (C. N.) and Bowen (E. J.) The Influence of Physical Conditions on the Velocity of Decomposition of certain Crystalline Solids, 203.
- Ibbs (T. L.) Some Experiments on Thermal Diffusion, 385.
- Integrals, transformation of (Young), 252.
- Invariants, differential, and multenions (McAulay), 292.
- Ionising rays, apparatus for detecting (Shimizu), 425.
- Iron, influence of low temperatures on magnetic properties of alloys of (Onnes, etc.), 174.
- Isotopes, discussion on, 87.
- Jeffery (G. B.) The Field of an Electron on Einstein's Theory of Gravitation, 123.
- Jenkin (C. F.) The Total Heat of Liquid Carbonic Acid, 352.
- Kikuchi (T.) On the Moving Striations in a Neon Tube, 257.
- King (L. V.) On the Design of Diaphragms capable of Continuous Tuning, 163.

- Lamb (H.) and Southwell (R. V.) The Vibrations of a Spinning Disk, 272.
Larmor (Sir J.) On Electro-crystalline Properties as conditioned by Atomic Lattices, 1.
Liesegang stratifications, anomalous (Hatschek), 496.
Light, absorption by elements in state of vapour (Dobbie and Fox), 456.
Light, action of, on Liesegang stratifications (Hatschek), 496.
Light from night sky, colour of (Rayleigh), 10.
Light in fluorescence, absorption and emission of (Wood), 362.
Lignites and brown coals, researches on, I (Bone), 236.
Lindemann (F. A.) on Isotopes (Discussion), 102.
Linear transformations and functions of positive type (Mercer), 19.

McAulay (A.) Multenions and Differential Invariants, 292.
Magnetic properties of alloys of iron, influence of low temperatures on (Onnes, etc.), 174.
Mercer (J.) Linear Transformations and Functions of Positive Type, 19.
Merton (T. R.) On Spectrophotometry in the Visible and Ultra-violet Spectrum, 78 ;
 — On Isotopes (Discussion), 101.
Multenions and differential invariants (McAulay), 292.

Neon tube, moving striations in (Kikuchi), 257.
Newman (F. H.) A New Form of Wehnelt Interrupter, 324.
Nitro-compounds, heats of combustion and formation of (Garner and Abernethy), 213.

Obituary Notices :—
 Abney, Sir W. de W., i. Clifton, R. B., vi.
 Fletcher, Sir L., ix. Ramanujan, S., xiii.
 Voigt, W., xxix.

Ocean currents, dissipation of energy in, relations with salinities and temperatures (Street), 39.
Onnes (K.), Hadfield (Sir R. A.), and Woltjer (H. R.) On the Influence of Low
 Temperatures on the Magnetic Properties of Alloys of Iron with Nickel and Manganese, 174.
Oxygen, liquid, vaporiser (Griffiths), 281.
